

The Penthouse

wallacespace clerkenwell green

Like a stylish oasis of cool and calm, our Penthouse at Clerkenwell Green is a bit special.

Styling-wise, we sought inspiration from Gio Ponti's famous Parco dei Principi hotel in Sorrento, with just a pinch of 'Bond villain's lair'.

If you need a space to really make an impression or you are looking for a little more room to think and create, the Penthouse is ideal.

With full length balconies and floor-to-ceiling glass windows allowing light to flood the space, the Penthouse is perfect for workshops and events where you really need to make an impact.

Continue the conversation

Continue the conversations of your day in our comfortable, private spaces, with two outdoor terraces offering views across our commanding London skyline.

End your day with a drink.

Beer, wine, fizz.
The nibbles are on us.

Drinks & canapés.

Enjoy a selection of beer, wine plus canapés or bowl foods if you fancy staying a little longer.

Carry on the conversations of the day over a private dinner.

Something light and informal, or longer and more extravagant, it's up to you.
